Our Procedures

Any complaint verbal or written will be referred to our Compliance Officer at the earliest opportunity or to a member of the senior management if the Compliance Officer is unavailable. We will also

- Acknowledge the complaint in writing promptly
- Give details in our acknowledgement letter of the Financial Ombudsman Service
- Make contact to seek clarification on any points where necessary
- Fully investigate the complaint
- If appropriate, contact you to discuss our interim findings and proposed response

We will let you have our final response as soon as possible and not later than eight weeks. If there is any unforeseen reason, why we believe that we cannot respond within eight weeks then we will contact you with our proposed timeline and make you aware of your options.

How to complain

To complain simply contact us either by phone, post or email using the above contact information. We regret that the Compliance Officer or other Managers may not always be available to speak to you directly if you wish to complain by phone. However, calls to the above number are recorded so the Compliance Officer will be able to listen to any complaint you make.

Definition of a complaint

The FCA defines a complaint as any oral or written expression of dissatisfaction from or on behalf of a client, whether justified or not, which includes an actual or potential financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience.

A customer and/or any other third party who makes a complaint will be known as a “complainant” for the purposes of this procedure.

The Financial Conduct Authority complaints rules apply to complaints:

- Made by, or on behalf of an eligible complainant;

- Relating to regulated activity;
- Involving an allegation that the complainant has suffered, or may suffer, financial loss, material distress or material inconvenience.

Eligible Complainants

It is the firm's policy to treat all complainants the same, however, eligible complainants are legally defined and have additional rights in law that we must acknowledge and adhere to. This includes the right to escalate their complaint to the Financial Ombudsman if the complainant is not satisfied with our decision.

Complaints about Third Parties

Investors occasionally express dissatisfaction to Seneca about third parties. When you complain to us, we will need to establish whether or not your complaint relates to action that Seneca has taken or whether it relates to the conduct of a Third Party such as your financial adviser. If the complaint relates to a third party, then we may need to send your complaint to them and request that they seek to resolve your complaint. If we take this action, then we will make you aware of why we believe that the third party is responsible and to what extent (if any) we will also consider your complaint.

Investigation

The Compliance Officer will establish the nature and scope of your complaint having due regards to the Financial Conduct Authority's direction:

- Deal with complaints promptly and fairly
- Give complainants clear replies and, where appropriate, fair redress
- An initial response must be provided within 5 business days of receipt.

Complaints Settled within 3 business days

Complaints that can be settled to your satisfaction within 3 business days can be recorded and communicated differently.

Where we consider a complaint to be resolved to your satisfaction under this section, we will promptly send you a 'Summary Resolution Communication', being a written communication from us, usually by email, which:

- (1) Refers to the fact that you have made a complaint and informs you that we now consider the complaint to have been resolved;
- (2) We will tell you that if you subsequently decide that you are dissatisfied with the resolution of the complaint you may be able to refer the complaint back to us for further consideration or alternatively refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service;
- (3) Indicates whether or not we consent to waive the relevant time limits, (where we have discretion in such matters)

(4) Provide the website address of the Financial Ombudsman Service; and

(5) Refer to the availability of further information on the website of the Financial Ombudsman Service.

In addition to sending you a Summary Resolution Communication, we may also use other methods to communicate the information where:

(1) We consider that doing so may better meet your needs; or

(2) We have already been using another method to communicate about the complaint.

Final response

This will set out clearly the firm's decision and the reasons for it. If we uphold a complaint either in full or in part, then we will set out our proposed resolution.

We must include details of the Financial Ombudsman Service in the final response if dealing with an eligible complainant and a regulated activity, we will:

- Explain that the complainant must refer the matter to the ombudsman within six months of the date of this letter or the right to use this service is lost
- Indicate whether or not we consent to waive the relevant time limits.

Closing a complaint

We will consider a complaint closed when we have made our final response to you. This does not prevent you from exercising any rights you may have to refer the matter to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

Financial Ombudsman Service

We will co-operate fully with the Financial Ombudsman Service in resolving any complaints made against us and agree to be bound by any awards made by the Ombudsman. The firm undertakes to pay promptly any fees levied by the Ombudsman.
